CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. Open to all participants in the deer industry and their families – farmers, farm employees or those in a subsidiary industry.
2. Deer must feature in some way in all photos.
3. Subject setting. Entries should feature at least one of the following settings
  - (a) Deer in the field

Farmed deer in their “natural” setting, e.g., crop, pasture or tussock hill country.
Individual animals or groups.
  - (b) People and deer

Positive images of animal husbandry work, eg, shifting animals, drafting, tagging, Tb testing, vaccinating etc – or people just interacting with their animals.
  - (c) Our deer farming environment

The farm environment is the star. Deer are in the photos but the focus is on the practical side of environmental enhancement, e.g. retired areas, protected waterways, nicely landscaped and fenced areas, good shade and shelter plantings and so on.
4. Number of entries per entrant is unlimited.
5. Each photo entered must be submitted:
  - (a) as a 200 x 250 (8” x 10”) print for mounting and display; and
  - (b) as an electronic file. Digital camera photos MUST be high resolution, a minimum of about 2600 x 3875 pixels (Jpeg file size about 2.5Mb). If film camera used, have negative scanned by processor and digital file submitted with your photo print entry. Digital files to be submitted on CD/DVD or data stick, via internet file transfer, or by email to cenwynn.philip@deernz.org
6. Entries that have been digitally manipulated to alter the composition (e.g. clear cutting, new backgrounds etc) will not be considered for judging.
7. Use an additional entry form if you are entering more than 3 photos.
8. All entries must include entrant’s name, address, phone and email on back of all prints.
9. Entries will not be returned unless specifically requested, and entry is accompanied by a stamped self-addressed C4 envelope.
10. Deer Industry New Zealand and MSD Animal Health reserve the right to publish any entries. This may include use in promotional material.
11. Every care will be taken with entries but Deer Industry New Zealand accepts no liability for loss or damage.
12. The judging panel will consist of no less than two persons and their decision will be final.
13. Entry fee: $15.00 per entry for 1–3 entries, an additional $5.00 each entry thereafter (e.g. $45.00 for 3 entries, $50.00 for 4 entries).
